The Establishment of the Mobile Riverine Base and Fire Bases – 18 June 1967

The move of the Mobile Riverine Force and establishment of the Mobile Riverine Base at the junction of the Soi Rap and Song Rach Cat Rivers was a major event – moving the force of over 3,000 men at night and setting up the base only 5-6 miles from the eventual battlefield us unprecedented.

Fire Base X-Ray was established on the nearby shore vicinity of what would become a familiar site to many – the FRENCH FORT.

> Late on 18 June the MRF ships moved to and anchored at the confluence of the Song Rach Cat and Soi Rap Rivers – the late move was designed to hide the arrival of the MRF
