Everything has opened up and capacities are at 100% seating in the restaurants, bars, etc. In this edition of the River Currents is the REGISTRATION form for the reunion. COVID-19 will be far behind us by September, and we will be having a great reunion! Be sure to call to make your hotel reservations. The number is 1-888-627-7066 for the HOTEL. Separately, send your REGISTRATION form with your check to Frank Jones. Remember, you have two things to do!!!! On-site registration is more, so mail yours today. We will refund any registration cancellations that are cancelled two weeks prior to the reunion. The hotel will cutoff room reservations on August 25th. Any overflow reservations will be at the Sheraton Plaza, which is across the courtyard from the Sheraton Chalet.

The bus tour to the Missouri National Veteran's Memorial in Perryville, MO is popular. We have two busses already chartered and will add more!!! If you wish to go, put that on your registration form also!! You must be pre-registered for this. A Plan of the Day is also attached to this edition so you can review where we are, as of today, with our plans.

The Arballos will be taking interviews at the reunion to add to the production of our MRF documentary. There will be a sign-up list at the on-site MRFA registration desk to sign up for an interview. The Arballos will also be showing a "sizzle reel" at the reunion which will be used to promote the documentary while it is in its final production phases. Arballo Productions has launched the official fund-raising campaign this month that will provide the public funding necessary to produce the documentary "The Mobile Riverine Force".

I am excited and so looking forward to seeing all of you in September. It will be a great one! Again, do not wait! Please make your reservations and your registration NOW!

Survey Question: "What did you do your first week home from Vietnam, and how did you feel?"

James D. Robertson. 4thBn./39th Inf, 9th ID. August '68/July '69. "I had a reporter and a cameraman following me around most of my first week home, so I felt awkward and self-conscious. I spent most of the time visiting with relatives and friends. There were several "Welcome Home" parties. It was shortly after the 4th of July, when I came home so there were still plenty of fireworks in the hands of the kids. I remember one instance when I was walking down the street talking to one of my cousins, and a pack of firecrackers went off nearby. I hit the deck and rolled under a parked car. That was embarrassing."

Paul Ray, Riv Ron 151, 69/70. "Got drunk, and wrecked my parent's car. How Did I Feel? I don't know. My brain was in a constant ricochet."

Frank Moran. B Co., 4/47th Inf. 67-68. "I felt relieved and welcomed by my wife. We have now been married 54 years."

John Descoteaux. River Assault Squadron 9, Nov 67/Nov 68. "First week home I kept the wife in bed, drank a lot of beer, and ate a lot of steak."

Jim Kerschner. B/2/60th Inf. 1970 -1971 "I got raving drunk a couple of times, enjoyed my mother's and grand-mother's cooking again (sure as hell beat C rations), but mostly I spent time with my friends in the mountains of central Pennsylvania. I can't begin to describe how god awful good it felt to be able to go into the woods and not have to be constantly alert for our little yellow brothers. After that there were the girls. I had really missed looking at them."

Donald Saylor. Riv Div 92, on Monitor 92-1, 1967. "I tried to relax and try to put the past year out of my mind. That didn't work so I began what ended up being a short journey to try and make sense out of the world I had come back to. Most of us know how that turned out too."

Bruce Peters. D Company, 4/39th Infantry./ 9th S&T 1969. "I was married ten days before I left, so what do you think I was doing? Seriously, I helped my father-in-law with harvesting soybeans for a week or so, bought a car, visited with family, then my wife and I drove to Ft Carson for my next assignment. We were there for 2 1/2 years until I was discharged in 1972. Oh, yeah, we had our first child a year later. Lol"

Dewey Pollock. BMCS ret. Tango 131-3. "When I got back I didn't go home for five years. I went to Pennsylvania, to stay with friends. It took me awhile before I was even halfway comfortable around other people. The clincher was when I finally got up the nerve, I went to the VFW in Bath, PA. I had been there often in the year before Vietnam. The commander, reading my application, told me that the VFW had not decided what the Vietnam veteran's status was, so he couldn't take my application at that time. I left and it took me forty years before I entered another VFW."

Don Blankenship. A-111-3 and A-152-21. 02/69-02/70. "Lyn and I married ten days after I got back from Vietnam, on February 11, 1969. So, as a result I was staying at Lyn's parent's house, getting blood tests, marriage license, putting together my new Fisher sound system which I ordered while in Vietnam, and just enjoying each other's company. Loved being back in the world. We celebrate our 51st wedding anniversary on February 21, 2021."

A.J. McCaskey. 4/47 Co. A, 1st Platoon 68/69. "I smiled a lot. It took a while to realize that I made it back in one piece. That I made it. I was quite nervous, but I was back, and elated."

Survey Question

Ralph Bigelow, T-131-8 68/69. "First week back I checked into Treasure Island. It was the island next to Alcatraz. I was a guard and runner with the Marines at the brig. Partied when I could in Frisco."

John Eanes. Sgt., 11-Bravo Co. B, 2nd Bn, 47th Inf, 9th Div. Oct. '68/Oct. '69. "Went to Disneyland. Spent a week in Southern California. Got acquainted with my year-old son, who I had not seen since he was a newborn, and re-acquainted with my wife. Tried not to look like I was just out of the Army."

David Sniff. HM2. USS Tutuila. Mar 66 - Apr 67. "Like many, I kept a low profile as I returned in '67 when anti-Nam was building a big following. I didn't tell anyone where I had been and I felt lucky to be alive with only some psychological issues I worked through as time went on."

Ray Ambrozy. C 3/60 9th Div. 02/67 - 02/68. "First week home, rented a 1968 Ford Torino, hung around with some friends, cruising Woodward Ave, (the strip in Detroit) picking up girls and going to bars, legally."

Mike Spight. Radioman. RAD 153 and RAD 152, Jan. '70/Jan. '71. "I got home on 7 January, 1971. My Mom and Dad had a very nice artificial Christmas Tree set up and they left all the decorations up all over the house so we could celebrate Christmas together, and my making it home in one piece. I felt somewhat numb to it all...I still had two years to go on my four-year enlistment, and only had thirty days of leave to spend at home. So, I bought a new car (Triumph GT-6+) and met a young lady who I then dated for about a year whenever I was home on leave. An old Buddy and I, who was still in town, and I did a LOT of partying during my thirty days of leave...too much in hind sight."

Ron 'Doc' McClain. 3rd Plt. Echo Co., 3/60 9th Infantry. 1/68-5/68. "Enjoyed peaceful time with my wife and infant daughter!"

Rich Lorman T-152-6 68/69. "I was head-to-toe in bandages for months in Chelsea Naval Hospital/Boston --- unable to feed myself or wipe my own ass, but when I finally hobbled to the family house to check on my stored/garaged 55 Chevy (afraid the family dog wouldn't recognize me) the dog/car joyful reunion was primary in that first week "home." Also, the Chevy was brought back to life and on the road that first week."

John Pell. E CO., 4/47th, 68-69. "Looked for a job, but all the places I checked on, when I told them I just got back from Vietnam, they would not talk to me. And then, I was going to trade school and every trade I chose, the VA would not pay for it at that time, which was May 1969, so I went to work with my dad in construction, which was good because I would never have been able to work in production to many bosses."

Ron Smith. "I found out my fiancée was pregnant. My second dad died and was buried two days before. I went to a bar for a beer and ran into an Aussie. He called me a "baby killer," so I knocked him out. That was March 7th, my first 24 hours home. The next day, I went to my VFW to renew my membership from 1968. I asked for a PBR and said I wanted to renew my membership. The bartender (a Korean War vet) said, "Get the f out of here. We don't serve your kind." I sure wished I had extended for six more months when I was asked to. I felt totally lost."

George Perrault. Headquarters Support Activity Saigon (HSAS)/ USS Tioga County LST 1158. "(I was) Back in the U.S. April, of 66, had a short R & R, packed up my spouse and fourteen-month-old and shipped off to an LST, out of Diego. I went back over to the Pearl of the Orient!"

Alfred Griffith. SSG. Company E, 3rd Battalion 60th Inf. Dec '67/Nov' 68. "I felt emotionally numb and alienated when I came back. I was wounded in the battle of My Tho, the concussion from the artillery almost deafened me. I thought they were going to amputate my right leg, at the field hospital on the Benewah. I can't take statin drugs because of unbearable leg cramps. I still have shrapnel in both legs. I have been diagnosed with Ischemic heart disease. I had two major heart attacks, four stents, and Traumatic Brain Injury."

Ron Garcia. USS Windham County LST 1170, 1966-68. "I visited the family of my friends still deployed and asked how they were. I felt like I needed to get status on everyone and talk to my friend's parents. By the way, every one of them welcomed me home!"

John Weiss. Charlie Company, 2/60 Inf. Oct. 28, 1968/Feb. 9, 1969 "My first week home was a little different, I think. I spent six weeks in Walter Reed Hospital, and came home every weekend. When the Army "TDY'd" me to home, I goofed off until I got my retirement papers. I bought a new car and went back to work."

Ray Harvey. Weapons Department Head, later First Lieutenant and Ship's Stores Officer. USS Clarion River (LSMR-409), 69/70. "Went home to my family. Flew to Travis AFB. Changed into civvies and kept my mouth shut to avoid trouble, flew commercial to Nashville, took a bus to my home town. Got a rare hug from my Dad and, of course, from Mom. Got a thank you from one of the men in town. Got my car out of mothballs and ready to drive to my next duty station in Norfolk, VA. Started looking for a new girlfriend."

Charley Endorf. Delta Co. 3rd Bn., 47th Inf. July of 68 to July of 69. "I was able to leave the war over there. I did not bring it home. My personal faith helped me through that, and I spent a lot of time with family and friends, and I more than ever appreciated the life I had, and valued it more than ever. I felt good, and relaxed for the first time in a year. And ate real food. Mom's cooking!"

Patrick M. Kelly. RivDiv 151, C-151-1. Jul. '68/Jun. '69. "Out of place. I found high school classmates that had also just returned. I haven't seen them since. I moved away from my home town. I did the diving into the gutter on a car backfire. I spent about five minutes at the exit door at the Long Beach airport before I realized that the lights in the parking lot would expose me to incoming fire, and I was cautious to go out into the light."

Joseph "Joe" Butchart. Company A, 15th Combat Engineer Battalion. Aug. '68/Jul.'69. "When I returned home, the plans were already made for my upcoming marriage. Nevertheless, I remember feeling like an alien at home (the San Francisco Bay Area); and I was scared to be home. I constantly looked over my shoulder. Every time a car went by, I was ready to duck and hide. I really was afraid to walk down the street. So much at home had changed in the year I was in Vietnam. It was a new and uncertain environment. In Vietnam, you were certain about how to act and react in that environment."

Paul George. EN3. T-112-9 Jul. '68/Nov. '68. A-112-7 Nov. '68/Jul. '69. "I got my driver's license, and four days later checked in to a dormitory at Ohio State University. Back in 1969, all freshmen were required to spend their first year in a dormitory... no exceptions."

Steve Crecy. E Co, 15th Engineers Bn. '67/'68. "I, at this age, have CRS (can't remember stuff, the nice way to say it). I think I mostly ate, drank and slept for the first week and took long showers."

Jerry Hyde USS Askari. USS Askari (ARL-30). Feb. '67/Feb. '68. "Let my long-constrained libido run amok."

Gary Hassebroek. B 4th of the 47th 9th Inf. May '68/Jun. '69. "I came home trying to figure how I made it and visited any and every one I knew,"

Eddie Fast. ETR-2, USS Colleton, 1 partial day on T-112-13. "I'm not sure what I did when I got home but I do remember my first day out of Great Lakes Naval Hospital. It was Veteran's Day 1967 and I stumbled into the festivities. I was behind some large bleachers on State Street not knowing what was happening on the street. When the 21-gun salute went off, I found myself flat on the sidewalk in my dress blues. I was kind of embarrassed and got out of there quickly."

Frank Passarelli. RM3, RivDiv 151, Tango 151-1/Tango 28, May '69/May '70. "My first week home . I stayed away from everyone, and I ate Chicago style pizza, Chicago style Italian beef, sandwiches, and hot dogs. Mostly I ate everything Mom cooked. I took very long BATHS."

Phil Byrum. 9th Div. 3/60th, Feb '68/Feb '69. "(It was a) Great time to reunite with my wife who I married in June 1967, and was drafted in August of '67. It was like a second honeymoon before we left for Ft. Bennington, to finish up.

Ken Kalish, JOC. River Patrol Section 523 & AFVN, Saigon. Jul. '67/ Feb '69. "That first day home I got a job as a TV reporter, paired with a high school buddy and Army VN vet (I Corps) as my photographer. Went dancing with my mom and met my first wife – all in that first week. Didn't know I was suffering from PTSD for two years, since Dan and I were doing lots of traffic accidents, fires, and "spot news." Dan and I covered my mother's death 24 Dec, '69 for the 10:00 news that night."

Frank Jones. Boat Captain T-48 Jul. '69/Jul' '70. "I spent my first week getting reacquainted with my wife and meeting my son who was 7 months old. Still married to this beautiful lady."

Tony M. Pope. 4th /47th, 1968/1969. "I visited my family but, especially my 95-year-old grandfather, who had never left Kentucky, and worked for the railroad for fifty-two years. He asked me how far away Vietnam was from Kentucky. I told him 10,000 miles. He replied, "That must have been a hell of a train ride!"

Andy Curtner. T-131-1, March '68/March '69. "After I came home, I visited with my family. I had thought about extending over there because I was close to my boat crew, but the crew came home at the same time and I wanted to be with my family."

James Fredrick. 9th Div., 3rd/47th, Feb. '68/ Feb. '69. "I had a complicated time getting out of RVN (a story for another time) so by the time I landed in California I was stretched pretty thin emotionally. I called some family friends in the Oakland area expecting a big welcome but I did not get that. I was disappointed with the reaction I got and felt unsure of how my return was going to be received. I decided to just go straight home rather than stay on in California. I stayed overnight in Oakland and then flew home to Tulsa the next day. My parents met me at the gate. I was shocked at how much they had aged in the year I had been gone.

The following day I got a call from one of those California friends asking me why I had not stayed in California to see them. I told her why and she said to get myself back to California because there were people who needed to see me, so I flew back to California.

Two of those people were the parents of a good friend of mine who had been killed in Vietnam the previous June. They lived near Oakland and I had stayed with them for a while when I was on leave before departing for Vietnam. They needed to talk to me about their son and hear my memories of him. I also met with the family of another friend who was wounded in Vietnam and had returned to the field after he had recovered from his wound. I then spent a few days in the Bay Area before returning to Oklahoma.

I was glad I went back and saw those people. I think it did them some good. I know it was good for me."

Mark Vandling. M-132-3. 105/50 gunner. 6-'69/6-'70. "I visited friends, went back to work, worried about my buddies still on the rivers, and generally felt out of place."

Steve Benedict. A/3/60. 3- '68/3-'69. "I don't recall what I did that first week back, but somewhere around there, I recall thinking, in the spring of '69, that I wanted to get involved in protesting the war I had just left, so I began doing that, although my early thoughts weren't real coherent. I remember being invited to be interviewed on a local talk radio program and realizing that I wasn't quite sure what our government should be doing in Vietnam at that point, so I imagine I was a rather unpersuasive guest. At least that's how I recall it.

John Gibbs. RM2, M112 – 2, a division 115 Tango, then to A115-7/A-17. 4-'69/1970. "I had a Medical three-week extension at Great Lakes for adjusting to life in "the world," hernia operation, and filing a VA claim for hearing loss. When I got home, I couldn't do much of anything for a month.

Tom Witt. YRBM-21, Tan Chao 8/71-10/71, Dong Tam 10-'71/4-'72. "I left all my greens back in-country. Some memories are best left behind! I had a nice ChiCom pistol and an AK-47. Someone else got them. That first week, and actually for six months, I searched out old friends, and discovered how much my attitude had changed, and theirs didn't, about certain things! It took me twenty-seven years to look up my old Navy buddies and discovered the MRFA guy right in my own county got me to join the local VFW. It really took that long to decompress!"

Donald Matras. Coastal Division 11, An Thoi, '68/'69. "I realized that I didn't belong in that world that I had been dreaming of for a year. Something had changed and I wasn't sure what. But, I didn't belong there, anymore."

Dick Sowa. RM3. T-131-3, RAID 73, USS Repose (AH-16). 69/70. The day I arrived at Long Beach for discharge, the Red Cross got hold of me to tell me that one of my best friends had been killed in a motorcycle accident. I got emergency leave to attend the funeral, and it delayed my discharge by about a week.

When I got home (March 1972), I put on my old suit and went to the funeral home. A lot of his and my old friends were there...ones that were more of the "acquaintance" type. The typical reaction to me was "oh...I haven't seen you around for a while...where have you been?" As soon as I mentioned the service, and Vietnam, I got "Oh" and some blank stares. No recognition whatsoever of my sacrifice. It was almost like I was a leper, and they didn't want to become infected so they said nothing at all. It was of no interest to anyone, and they couldn't care less. Most of society treated me the same way... nobody cared whether I had served or not. So, over the years, it just faded away. Nobody asked, and I never talked about it. Of course, family and close friends were supportive, but not the vast majority of society. It's only been the last few years that things have changed...and especially since 9/11. Since I worked for the Feds, I did get some job-related recognition...and was able to count my military time toward Civil Service Retirement. So that was good. But overall, it was a non-event most of the time. Nonetheless, I put my flag out on all the holidays (one of the very few on my block that did, until the last couple years), and have Vietnam Vet license plates.

Then, about a year ago (about 2003), I had some cable tv problems and a service tech came out...a guy about 25-30 or so. After he was done, I walked him out to his truck, and as he passed my pickup, he noticed the Vietnam Vet license plate. He turned around, stuck out his hand to shake mine and said "thank you for serving...I want you to know how much I appreciate your sacrifice". Needless to say, I was flabbergasted and speechless. It was the first time since coming home, that anyone (except family and you all in the MRFA) had openly acknowledged it. Of course, I thanked him for his kind words, but was so dumbfounded I couldn't think of anything else to say.

I know it was a small thing, but it made a difference to me, and will stick with me forever.

"I stayed away from everyone, and I ate Chicago style pizza, Chicago style Italian beef, sandwiches, and hot dogs. Mostly I ate everything Mom cooked. I took very long BATHS."

A Message to the Men of the 9th Infantry Division From a Friend and Admirer in France

I noticed a comment on the MRFA and 9th Infantry Division from a Frenchman named Yannick. I was very touched by it, and got in touch with him, asking him if he would do a little write-up for River Currents. As an old "squid," on the Navy side of association, I was very moved by Yannicks devotion to the men of the 9th who fought to free France and the world, as well as his appreciation and brotherhood with the Old Reliables of Vietnam. I hope that many of you are as moved as I was, and take the time to reach out to Yannick. I asked him for his home address, and added it to the end of his letter, below.

"Hello

Let me introduce myself, my name is Yannick Longy. I am forty-one years old. I am French, and I am passionate about WW2, as well as the U.S. 9th Infantry Division.

(I have been) passionate since my youngest age (about) WW2, I have collected various objects related to this period.

Until one day in February 2015, I became a member of an association called the "Flowers of Memory," in front of a member, I was offered to sponsor an American soldier who died in the fighting, at the cemetery of Colleville-sur-Mer in Normandy.

PDATED: 11/27/2020

I accepted the proposal and became a sponsor of a soldier of the 9th Infantry Division US. (Arnold Ritchie, 47th IR, kia June, 17 1944)

At the beginning, I knew very little about this division, so I started to do research and by force I became a fan and very Admirer of the "Old Reliables."

I pushed my research on this Hero that I sponsored for the first time until being in contact with his family, over time I created links with this beautiful family and learned a little more about the tec 4 grade Arnold Ritchie.

But now, there were still many Soldiers of the 9th Infantry Division who were not blooming every year so I made a request to the association, that of officially sponsoring the soldiers of the 9th ID who had no one for take care of them because in my opinion, no one should be forgotten.

The association accepts my proposal and today officially I sponsor 10 soldiers of the 9th Infantry Division, five unofficial. soldiers whom I visit every year and which I flower in their memories and those of their families.

Today, the 9th infantry division US occupies a big place in my life, my WW2 collection is oriented towards this formidable division.

I am always looking for information on the soldiers I sponsor and information on the 9th ID.

A devouring passion that makes me start to learn about the 9th ID in Vietnam

I befriended five Vietnam veterans.

Although I am French, the 9th Infantry Division has become a second family for me.

I would like to thank from the bottom of my heart all those Men who have fallen in combat, to express my gratitude to them.

Thank you for my freedom ...9th Infantry Division WW2 vets and Vietnam vets, thank you very much for your service and courage.

God bless you all.

Sincerely, from France.

Yannick

(When Yannick sent me his address, he added this message)

"These words are sincere and I also know the way you were greeted on your return from Vietnam. I'm glad the situation is moving in the right direction. You all sacrifice your youth in war, others let your life there. I am not an American, but I thank you all for your service in Vietnam.

May God bless all the men of the 9th Infantry Division."
